Algebro-geometric methods in the KP theory

Zheglov Alexander Borisovich

Abstract

Now it is well known that algebro-geometrical methods allow to construct exact solutions of various nonlinear equations of mathematical physics. At the beginning of my talk I will present a short review how such solutions for the classical KP hierarchy can be produced, and then I will tell about how these methods can be generalized on more difficult hierarchies.